

April 1, 2021

Dear Supporter,

Jenna Robinson Charities is a local 501(c)(3) non-profit organization named after the late Jenna Robinson, who passed away April 2016 at the age of 17 due to an Epilepsy related illness.

First established as the Jenna Robinson Scholarship Fund, the Scholarship Fund provided scholarships to those in the performing arts, and this continues today. It was soon apparent that there is a need in the area for supporting families living with epilepsy and the charity was started. We expanded our focus to include awareness and support of those families living with Epilepsy and SUDEP (Sudden Unexplained Death in Epilepsy).

To do this we:

- Provide Scholarships for those in the Performing Arts field
- Help families meet their financial goal for seizure dogs
- Help families obtain epilepsy monitoring systems
- Provided speakers when requested
- Support the Mississippi Epilepsy Foundation, P.A.M.E and SUDEP Institute
- Support legislation to declare SUDEP as a cause of death
- Provide shared experiences with families who are currently living with epilepsy and connecting them with resources and services

This year we celebrate our Fifth Annual Ballerina Ball. We will be at the beautiful Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, Jefferson Davis Campus Hospitality Building. We will have our menu catered by the students of MGCCC Hospitality program, entertainment by the Island School of Performing Arts dancers, live music and more.

How can you help? There are two ways to help 1- Become a Sponsor and 2- Provide a Silent Auction Item(s). Forms for both are included with this appeal. We would greatly appreciate any help you or your company is willing to donate to our event. We would be happy to display your company's logo and we can provide a donation receipt letter with the foundation's tax-exempt ID number for your records.

If you have any questions or need further information, please contact us at info@jennarobinsoncharities.org. On behalf of Jenna Robinson Charities and the Robinson family thank you for your consideration and support

Sincerely,
